

Worksheet V: Photography Checklist

Here are some important things to think about when taking pictures:

- _____ Have you chosen a subject or subjects for your photo?

- _____ Have you decided on the setting for your photo?

- _____ Did you get permission from your subjects to take their picture by having them sign the release form (if necessary)?

- _____ Did you get permission to shoot at the site (if necessary)?

- _____ Have you thought about what will make your composition strongest?

- _____ Have you thought about different possible points of view for your photo?

- _____ Have you decided whether your photo will be candid, posed, or staged?

- _____ Have you considered what kind of lighting will be appropriate for your picture?

- _____ Is your camera's battery charged?
