

What seems important in this photo?

What does this photo remind you of?

What Jewish values do you see reflected in this photo?

What does this photograph suggest to you about the relationship between people and nature?

“Man goes out to his work, to his labor until evening. How many are the things You have made, O Lord; You have made them all with wisdom; the earth is full of Your creations. There is the sea, vast and wide, with its creatures beyond number, living things great and small.” - Psalms, 104:23-25

What does this text have to do with the photograph?

What title would you give this photo? Why?

“Now God took the man and God placed him in the Garden of Eden to work it and to guard it.”
- Genesis 2:15

What do you think this says about our responsibility toward the natural environment?

Draw your vision of the ideal environment here.